Dear Marge,

Do let me hear what you have done and learned.

I can speak to someone at the Secret Service but do not want to until you do locally and until I learn what you do. I also would like to see any documents before I do, any records.

The more I think of it, the more I believe Jerome did an important and the right thing.

There is something else I once asked you to do that I now think is even more important than it seemed then. You may have to do this through your lawyer, but I think you should ask for and get a complete record of Godfrey's treatment and medication record. He told me something that could be significant, particularly in this new light, about a change in it.

Also, please let me know if you get nowhere.

Our financial condition has worsened, so I cannot now plan for any trip there. However, I am to make a speaking trip out west. Ordinarily, I can, for little or no extra cost, make a stop on the way back. I might then be able to go there and check further into this and a few other things I left hanging. So, please keep me posted as completely and as rapidly as you can. Then I might be able to do whatever may be possible at this end first.

If he has not already done it, I think it is important for Jerome to make a full memorandum of who he spoke to and what he was told. As time goes on memory dims. Please send me a copy of it.

Hope this may lead to something a little better.

When you are in touch with Godfrey, remind him again that he promised to try a few poems and to send them to me. Ask him to turn his mind back to things about which he might want to write, to create.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
